ABOUT RAILROADS.

The loss of life on railroads averages one in ten million.

An eight-wheel passenger locomotive costs about $8,500.

The average daily earnings of an American locomotive are about $100.

The Hoosic tunnel is the longest in America, four and three-quarters miles.

The cost of a palace sleeping car is about $15,000, or $17,000 if vestibuled.

Peter Cooper gets the credit for building the first locomotive in the United States.

The average cost of constructing a mile of railroad in the United States is so far $30,000.

The Denver and Rio Grande railroad goes over Marshall Pass at a height of 10,852 feet.

The Manhattan Elevated railroad, New York, carries 525,000 passengers a day, or 191,625,000 yearly.

The Canadian Pacific railway is the longest east and west railroad, and has termini on salt water at both ends.

The longest mileage operated under a single system is that of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe system; about 8,000 miles.

The fastest time made between Jersey City and San Francisco so far has been three days, seven hours, thirty-nine minutes and sixteen seconds.

The mileage of railroad building this year is nearly divided between the Northern and Southern States, a good indication for the New South.

The Reading railroad is now restored to the company of solvent lines by the success of the Board in placing the two bonded loans of $20,000,000 of new fours and $12,000,000 of income fives. The fours brought 87 1/2.

The greatest speed attained has been ninety-two miles in ninety-three minutes, one mile having been made in forty-six seconds on the Reading railroad, or seventy-eight and a quarter miles an hour.

The longest railway bridge span in the United States is the Cantilever span in Poughkeepsie, 548 feet; Kinzua viaduct, on the Erie railroad, 305 feet high, is the highest in the United States.

The annual report of the Southern Pacific railroad company shows the gross earnings of the entire system to be $37,930,000; operating expenses, $22,712,000; earnings over operating expenses, $15,218,000.

There are 150,000 miles of railroad in the United States, or about half the mileage of the world. They have cost 9,000,000,000 dollars, and employ more than a million persons.

Notice of Sale.

WHEREAS, On the sixteenth day of January, 1888, the stockholders of the Waco Farm, at their regular annual meeting, held at the above mentioned date, in the city of Waco, county of McLennan, state of Texas, did, by resolution, authorize the directors of said corporation to sell at public auction, the property known as the Waco Farm, for the purpose of liquidating the indebtedness of said corporation and the directors of the said company, in compliance therewith, at a meeting held in the city of Waco, on the Twenty-third day of Oct. 1888, passed a resolution instructing the secretary to at once advertise the property (all of which will more fully appear, reference being had to the resolution of said directors.) Whereas, by virtue of authority vested in me by the resolution aforesaid, I will offer for sale, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 o'clock p. m., at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the Fifth day of November, next, at the court house, in the city of Waco, that certain tract of land known as

THE WACO FARM.

With the members and appurtenances there-to belonging, lying in said county of McLennan, and more particularly described as follows: Six hundred and forty-nine acres of land, beginning at the survey of 644 acres of which in the center of Flat creek at a point south 45° West 350 yds and north 45° west 80 yds from the southwest cor. of Thos. M. Chambers' two league survey in said McLennan county, Texas. Thence return to said southwest corner. Thence north 45° east 1094.4 yds, to the southeast corner of the 250 acres hereinafter mentioned. Thence north 45° west 1344.7 yds to the north corner of said 250 acres and west corner of Kestling's 50 acre survey. Thence north 45° east 404.4 yds to the east corner of the 175 acres hereinafter mentioned. Thence north 45° west 824.1 yds to the north corner of the 250 acres of said 644 acres survey. Thence north 45° west 824.1 yds along a Grand's west line to the north corner of said 15 acre tract. Thence south 55° west 297 yds. Thence south 67 1/2° west 1394.4 yds. Thence south 45° east 87 1/2° yds to the north corner of the place of beginning, being 250 acres out of the Chambers survey, deeded by Catherine F. Ferguson and others to Chas. Moran, Jr. also 175 acres out of said Chambers survey, deeded by Enoch Winter to Chas. Moran, Jr., and 404 acres out of the Carlos O. O'Connell survey, deeded by J. H. McMurray and wife to Chas. Moran, Jr., in all 644 acres. The remaining 5 acres being the timber lot out of M. Marans two league grant adjoining the O'Connell survey, deeded to Chas. Moran, Jr. by J. H. McMurray and wife, November 15, 1882. The said sale will be made for cash, the purchaser, however, taking the said farm subject to a mortgage of $9,000, held by the State Central bank of Waco, Texas. In witness hereof I have hereunto set my hand, this October 23d, A. D. 1888.
